MF Property Management Ltd.'s Privacy Statement

28 Bett Court, Guelph

As you may be aware, in an effort to respond to the privacy concerns of Canadians, the federal government enacted the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) effective January 1, 2004. The purpose of PIPEDA is to regulate the private sector's collection, use and disclosure of personal information.

MF Property Management Ltd. will adhere to PIPEDA's principles regarding the collection, use and disclosure of personal information. At MF Property Management Ltd., we view PIPEDA as more than a legal obligation; it is about continuing to maintain your trust and respect. We are committed to continue providing you with the privacy that you expect.

Protection of Personal Information

MF Property Management Ltd. will protect the personal information of its clients in accordance with our obligations under PIPEDA. If you consent to provide us with personal information, we will use it only for the purposes outlined in our Privacy Policy. All personal information is stored on a protected server with the necessary passwords and security precautions in place.

Under certain circumstances, MF Property Management Ltd. may disclose your personal information. Examples include: if we are required to by law; when you have consented to the disclosure; when it is necessary to collect outstanding common expense fees; or when we retain a third party to fulfill services related to management of your property on behalf of the Corporation or yourself. In this case, only the necessary information will be provided and the third party will use the information solely for the purpose of fulfilling the service, under the instruction of MF Property Management Ltd.

Website Privacy

MF Property Management Ltd. does not collect personal information (such as IP address) or any other type of identifying information for any visitor to our website. We do not apply the use of cookies to our site. If you voluntarily supply personal information for the purpose of making an inquiry, we will use it only for the purpose of a response.

If you have any questions regarding our Privacy Policy do not hesitate to contact our Privacy Officer at 519-824-4208 or by emailing us at mfprop@mfproperty.com.
